Programs: Equestrian, Sled Hockey, Ski/Board, Tippy Toes, Camp GREAT, Climbing, Bowling, and any other activity EMGF provides its participants on a one-time or yearly basis.

How We Collect Information About You: Eagle Mount Great Falls (EMGF) and its employees and volunteers collect data through a variety of means including but not necessarily limited to letters, phone calls, emails, voicemails, and from the submission of applications that are either required by law or necessary to process applications or other requests for assistance through our organization.

What We Do Not Do With Your Information: Information about your financial situation and medical conditions and care that you provide to us in writing, via email, on the phone (including information left on voicemails), contained in or attached to applications, or directly or indirectly given to us, is held in strictest confidence.

We do not give out, exchange, barter, rent, sell, lend, or disseminate any information about participants or volunteers who apply for or receive our services that are considered confidential, is restricted by law, or has been specifically restricted in a signed HIPAA consent form.

How We Do Use Your Information: Information is only used as is reasonably necessary to process your application or to provide you with safe recreational adaptive activities which may require communication between EMGF and health care providers, medical product or service providers, and other providers necessary to: verify your information is accurate and determine the most appropriate and safe activities in any of the EMGF programs.

If you apply or attempt to apply to receive services through us and provide information with the intent or purpose of fraud or that results in either an actual crime of fraud for any reason including willful or un-willful acts of negligence whether intended or not, or in any way demonstrates or indicates attempted fraud, your non-medical information can be given to legal authorities including police, investigators, courts, and/or attorneys or other legal professionals, as well as any other information as permitted by law.

Information We Do Not Collect: We do not use cookies on our website to collect data from our site visitors.

Limited Right to Use Non-Identifying Personal Information from Biographies, Letters, Notes, and Other Sources: Any pictures, stories, letters, biographies, correspondence, or thank you notes sent to us become the exclusive property of EMGF. We reserve the right to use non-identifying information about our participants and volunteers for fundraising and promotional purposes that are directly related to our mission.

No one will be compensated for use of this information and no identifying information (photos, addresses, phone numbers, contact information, last names or uniquely identifiable names) will be used without express advance permission.

You may specifically request that NO information be used whatsoever for promotional purposes, but you must identify any requested restrictions in writing. We respect your right to privacy and assure you no identifying information or photos that you send to us will ever be publicly used without your direct or indirect consent.

Additional Privacy Statement for Donors

Eagle Mount Great Falls is committed to respecting the privacy of its financial and in-kind donors, whether the donation is made online, by mail, or any other method. When you make a financial or in-kind donation, you provide your name and contact information. Financial donors provide standard payment information including, in many circumstances, credit card data. We protect your information in a variety of ways, as described below.

We use industry standard safeguards to protect your information. Many donors use credit cards for donations. We protect the security of credit card transactions using a number of measures such as encryption, access controls, network firewalls, and physical security. These measures make it extremely difficult for anyone to intercept the credit card information you send to us. When we work with other companies to process credit card transactions, those companies also use encryption and other appropriate security measures.

We will not sell, share or trade our donors' personally identifiable information with any other entity, except as described below. In addition, we will not send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations, unless a donor has given us specific permission to do so. Eagle Mount Great Falls uses its website for processing and managing online donations and other online payments through Stripe, Donor Box and Pay Pal. We may give our website host access to our data as needed for server repair. Our host is bound by strict confidentiality rules and is permitted to have access only to support Eagle Mount Great Falls website operations.
